... MINISTER'S MUSINGS ...

And so the summer is upon us.

I believe it important UUCB think and present itself as a 12-month congregation – a departure from a typical UU model, in which the minister is gone for most of the summer. If our message is worth broadcasting 10 months of the year, it is worth it during the other two months, too. Moreover, Brunswick is in a summer tourist region. Folks who cannot be here during the rest of the year come during the summer. If I were gone for the whole summer, I would never see some of them.

Consequently, I will take half of my break during the summer and the rest during the winter. I will be gone from July 20 to August 20. While I am away, Church Office Administrator Shirley Bernier will know how to reach a minister on call in the event of an emergency. If Shirley is unavailable, please contact a member of the Board for assistance.

We have actually been moving toward this model for some time. In the old days, our congregation closed during the summer. But we began to hold lay-led summer services in the years before I arrived on the scene. Most summers, I have returned to work in mid-August, a couple of weeks before what some consider “the beginning of the church year.” This summer I will simply increase the number of weeks I work during the summer. I plan to take the rest of my break time in January.

I know some in the congregation like to take the summer off from church, and that's OK. Only you can determine what you need from church. If you take time off, we will miss you, but we will be here when you return.

In the meantime, we will still be the safe, welcoming, feisty, creative community we are during the rest of the year. The human needs for community, contemplation, live music, singing, healing, inspiration, and quiet do not disappear from people's lives just because it's summer. Nor does the desire for many to turn our focus to Awe, our hearts to Love, and our minds to the deepest questions of Mystery. The need for a safe place to learn what it means to grow into our best selves is not seasonal. Too, the vicissitudes of life and death roll right along, regardless of the current calendar page.

So I invite you to think of UUCB as a 12-month congregation. We're here. And, when you aren't off on that long awaited camping trip or entertaining Aunt Tillie, Uncle Johnie, and the triplets, we hope you will join us on Sundays.

Have a wonderful summer – and have some of it in church!

Love,
Sylvia

STUDENT INTERN UPDATE

Our student intern, Claire Curole, is postponing her on-site internship with us for personal reasons. She hopes to join us in September of 2015 instead. Although I will continue to mentor her during the coming academic year, I am sad she won't be joining our team this coming fall. But I applaud her courage in discerning and doing what is clearly right for her ministerial formation. – Sylvia Stocker

Dear UUCB Congregaton,

I write to you from a car ferry, on my way to Church Point Nova Scotia where I will be spending the next five weeks. As I depart from Maine, I feel it is a good time to reflect on my year at the church and to share with you what it has meant to me.

Starting with the chorus: It has been an absolute pleasure working with a group of singers who are so welcoming and who bring an ambiance of enjoyment and team-work to every practice. And, as well, it has been great working with Heidi, a kind and effective director. I have felt very appreciated by the whole chorus for the modest accompaniment I lent them, and in my turn feel very grateful for this. You are truly a great group of individuals and I hope your numbers keep on growing!

Secondly, I would like to thank the whole congregation for the experiences (and music) in which we shared nearly every Sunday. I not only enjoyed playing music for you (hymns included), but greatly appreciated listening to the sermons and witnessing the many contributions each service included. Playing hymns was for me a learning experience and in this way it was rewarding to figure out how to make my playing "click" with your singing.

Finally I would like to thank you for some of the generous material gifts you gave me. I was surprised in finding the very generous financial gift you gave me. I very much appreciate that in itself but also the gesture it expresses. Along with this, I want to thank you for the cake and specially chosen tee-shirt you presented me with.

In summation, it has been an immensely enjoyable and exciting ride for me at the church. Although my stay has been too short, I look forward to coming back in July and whenever I am in the area. Keep in touch and take care!

Best,
Will (wilson.bristol@maine.edu)

The task force has taken its work very seriously and is sensitive to the historical and sentimental value of items as well as to the need to reduce our storage costs. Items may include one or two upholstered pieces, various small tables and desks, several small pieces of stained glass windows (bunny windows), and other items. The exact location of the sale will be announced in mid-July, but do know that the location is convenient to the church. Many thanks for putting this on your calendars!

to everyone who contributed to the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee (UUSC) Guest at Your Table special offering in May. Our church raised $1,179, plus an additional $780 for UUSC during the March Charities with Soul offerings. This money will go toward UUSC’s efforts to partner with grass roots human rights organizations all over the world.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Habitat for Humanity volunteers are needed for the next build. The Habitat sign has gone up on Route 123 near Bowdoin College, and hopefully the first home for a veteran will be started sometime this summer. Habitat is looking for teams of 7-10 workers for Saturdays starting the second Saturday in September. Would you like to participate? While we welcome women, this is a great opportunity for the men in the church to become involved. I am trying to see if there is enough interest in doing this, so please give me a call at 833-5125 or email me at gkamilewicz@gmail.com. If I see that we can provide help for one Saturday, then I will work on setting a date.

Many thanks. Gretchen

BUILDING AND GROUNDS

HELP WITH WATERING NEEDED!!

Would you like to spend an hour or so on two to three different days during a week watering the newly planted bushes, trees, and perennials in our UUCB garden? July is covered, but we still need people for August 11th on. Can't do it for a whole week, then sign up on our substitute list. For more information or to sign up, please call Gretchen Kamilewicz at 833-5125 or email her at gkamilewicz@gmail.com.

Many thanks.

Please contact the Fund Raising Events Committee for general information and support.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS

GORDON BOK!

Saturday, July 19th at 7:00 p.m.
UU Church of Brunswick

To raise funds for the 2014-15 church operating budget, the Fundraising Events Committee has hired Maine's premiere folksinger, Gordon Bok to perform a concert in our new church building on July 19th. Tickets are $20 and can be purchased at the church office or at Gulf of Maine Books.

"And while my hands are steady, while my eyes are good, I will carve the music of the wind into the wood," Gordon Bok sings on his "Apples in the Basket" CD. Thankfully for us all, his hands are still steady holding the multiple instruments he plays in concert, a six string guitar, a twelve string guitar (on which his mastery is particularly notable), a viola de gamba, and various whistles.

Perhaps not as well known to many who love his music, Gordon is also, with his steady hands and eyes that have not dimmed, an accomplished wood carver, and pictures of some of his carvings grace the covers of several of the CD's he has released.

Gordon Bok's musical legacy has been carved into the memories of music lovers in Maine, across the country, and in numerous foreign countries, a unique legacy of awe inspiring breadth, depth and diversity, taking listeners on a rich journey across multiple continents and centuries, from the Australian out-back to 16th century England, and especially, back to the Maine coast. For it is Maine and its rugged coast that is his true spiritual home, and nothing could be truer than the observation in the Brunswick Times-Record that "If the sea had a voice with which to sing, it would be the voice of Gordon Bok."

JUD CASWELL!

As an added bonus UUCB's own singer/songwriter Jud Caswell will be doing the opening set for the Bok Concert. Jud hit the folk scene in 2004 with a long string of wins at some of the most prestigious songwriting contests in the country. He has played festivals and concerts from New England to Texas and Oregon, and charted with his 2007 release, "Blackberry Time." Jud is a favorite at many of the local venues, especially at Byrnes Irish Pub.

FOR YOUR SUMMER REFLECTION: A CHALICE CIRCLE FOR YOU NEXT YEAR?

FROM KAREN FOLEY, UUCB AFFILIATED MINISTER

For those who don't already know, I coordinate our Chalice Circle program, taking over that role from Sylvia last fall. This year, the fifth for Chalice Circles, has been a good one—six circles with seven dedicated facilitators (one with co-facilitators). They tell me that people are already asking, “When will new Chalice Circles start up? I want to be in one!” That is wonderful news!

Answer: you can sign up to participate in a Chalice Circle starting in September. A sign-up form will appear in the September newsletter. Current Chalice Circles will continue to meet through October. New ones will form and begin to meet in November (instead of October as they did this year). It's hoped that his later start will give more of our newcomers—so many people begin attending church in early fall—a chance to participate. Each year it's a whole new set of Circles, reconfigured, so no Circle is replicated from year to year. (Yes, this means you have to sign up to be in one next year, even if you're already in one!)

Chalice Circles are an adult religious education program, a curriculum designed specifically for Unitarian Universalist seekers. They allow us to know each other on a deeper level than we can manage in coffee hour, or even most “normal conversation”. A Chalice Circle is a chance to know others more deeply and closely, and to explore the experience of your heart and spirit. Circles meet once a month for 12 months with the guidance of a facilitator. Each month, all Circles engage the same topic, which changes monthly.

Maybe you're in a Chalice Circle currently and would like to continue; maybe you previously partook and didn't this year but would like to resume. Maybe you've never tried a Chalice Circle and are curious. Watch the August Parish Messenger for more about Chalice Circles, and the September issue for a sign-up form! And don't hesitate to talk to others about their experiences with Chalice Circles—or me (revKLFoley@comcast.net, 725-1379).

Monday Night Chalice Group (facilitated by Betty Wurtz and Ed McCartan) chose to do their community service at the Cathance River Ecology Center.

MEMBERSHIP

THANK YOU TO CHALICE CIRCLES MEMBERS

In the past year or two, Chalice Circle group members have supported our work by preparing food for a special event. Your contributions are appreciated greatly by Committee members - allowing us to focus on other aspects of the events - AND by all who enjoy the wonderful food you bring.

New Member Ceremony—June 8, 2014

Dana Pratt, Ted Berrett, June Garman, Leah Bauer, Christoph Aepli, Susan Thorner, Norm Rich, and Nan Hughes

CIRCLE SUPPERS

SIGN UP NOW!

Two Circle Suppers have been organized for July, the first on July 12 and the second on July 26. Circle Suppers are "cooperative" pot lucks and are a great way for newcomers and 'seasoned' members and friends to meet one another. Held in the home of a UUCB-er, the food is always terrific and the conversations wide ranging. Do contact Debbie Zorach at 729-8102 or dszorach@zwi.net if you would like to attend one of these 'dinners for eight'. There are possibilities for other dates as well, potential hosts are invited to call or email Debbie as well.
